CERTIFICATED EMPLOYEE POLITICAL LEAVE

The superintendent may provide a leave of absence to certificated employees to run for elective public office. A political leave of absence shall only be granted as unpaid leave.

The certificated employee may only be granted one period of leave to run for the elective public office. The leave may not commence before thirty days of a contested primary, special, or general election nor continue beyond the day following the election.

The request for leave must be in writing to the superintendent at least thirty days prior to the starting date of the requested leave.
